FEEL THE JOOHS

I'd like to teach the World to sing...

... In perfect harmony.

Day by day . . .

WE LIVE!

if there is joy
in your heart;
Notify your face.

Put on a happy face!

harmony n.

1. pleasing arrangement, as of musical tones 2. FRIENDSHIP

Every time I feel the spirit . . .

In the two years of our existence, we have established ourselves as an outstanding school in all aspects, not only as being superior in athletics, but also in our drive and enthusiasm in backing our school and our teams. Above all, we have won this respect due to the efforts of individuals working together as one for one purpose: to back the team.

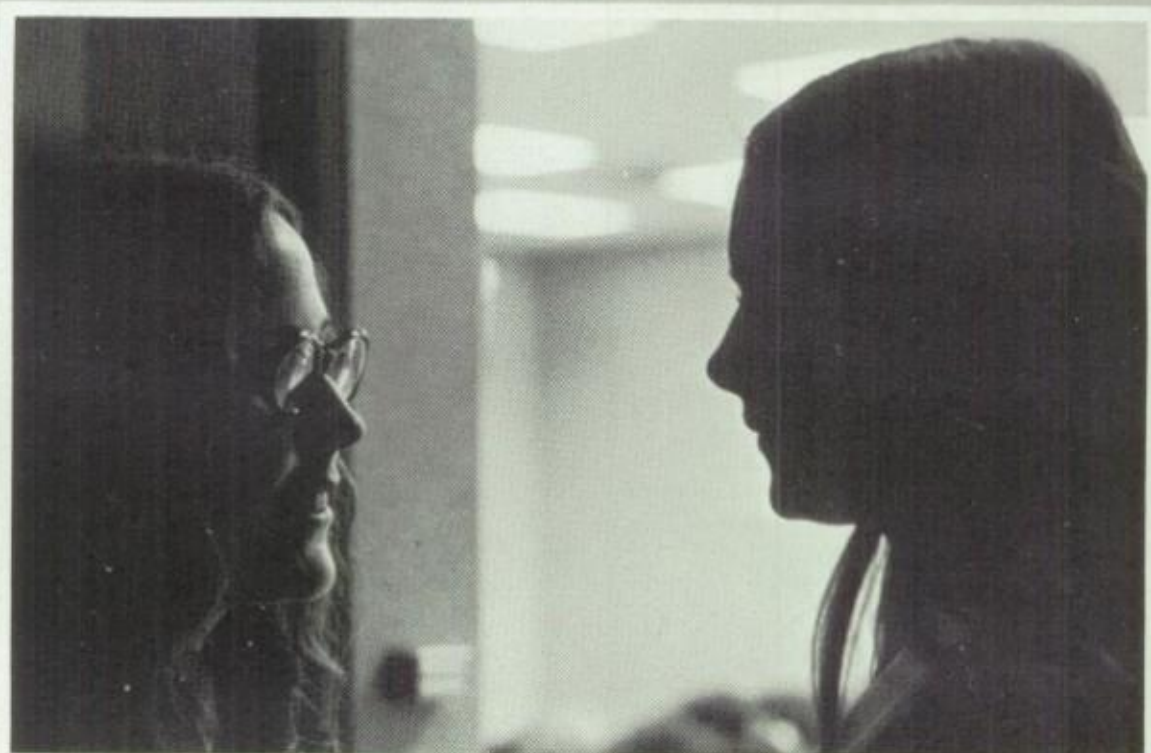

People who need people . . .

A friend.

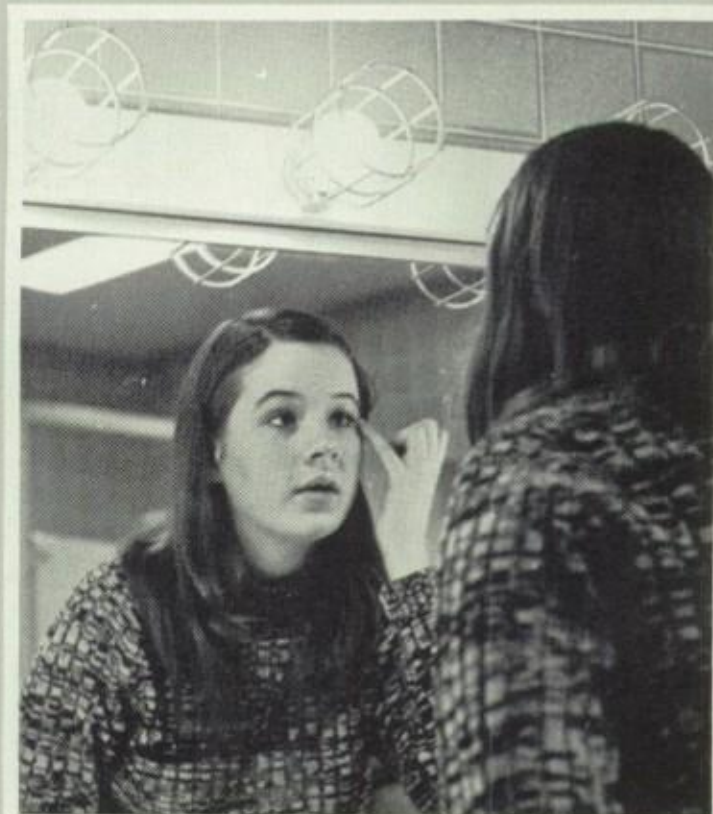

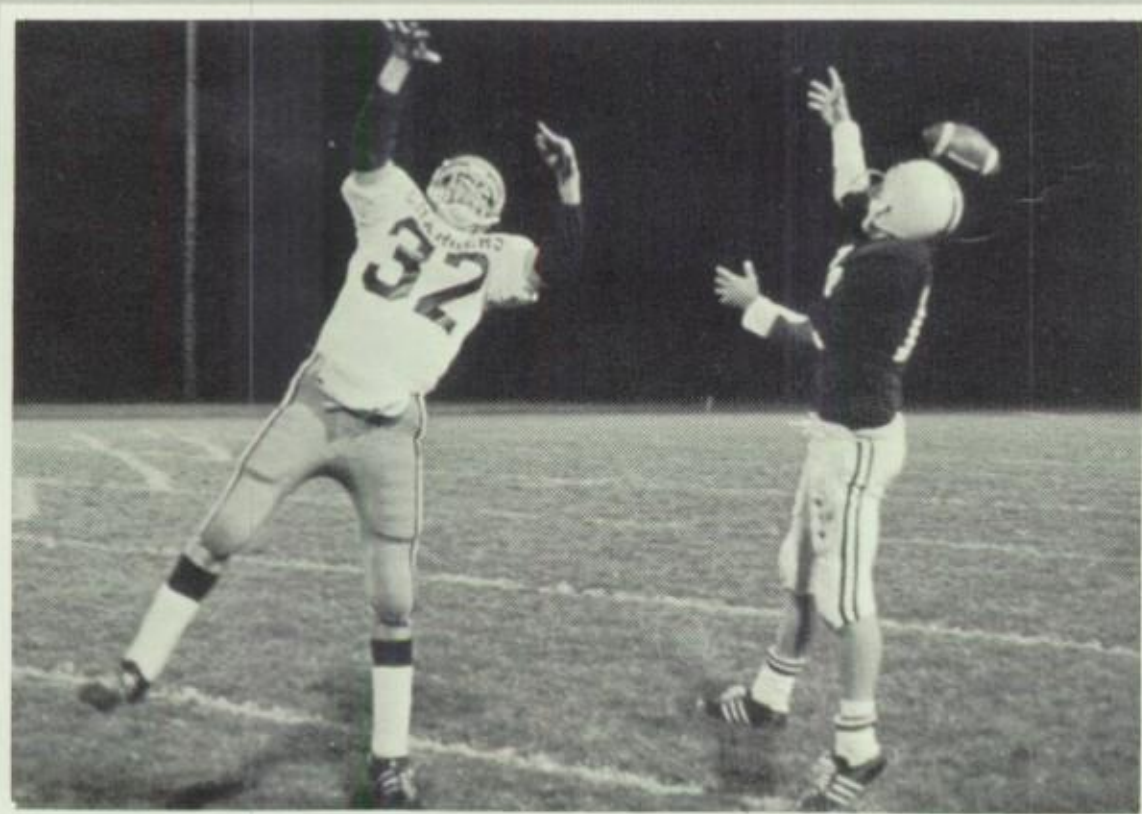

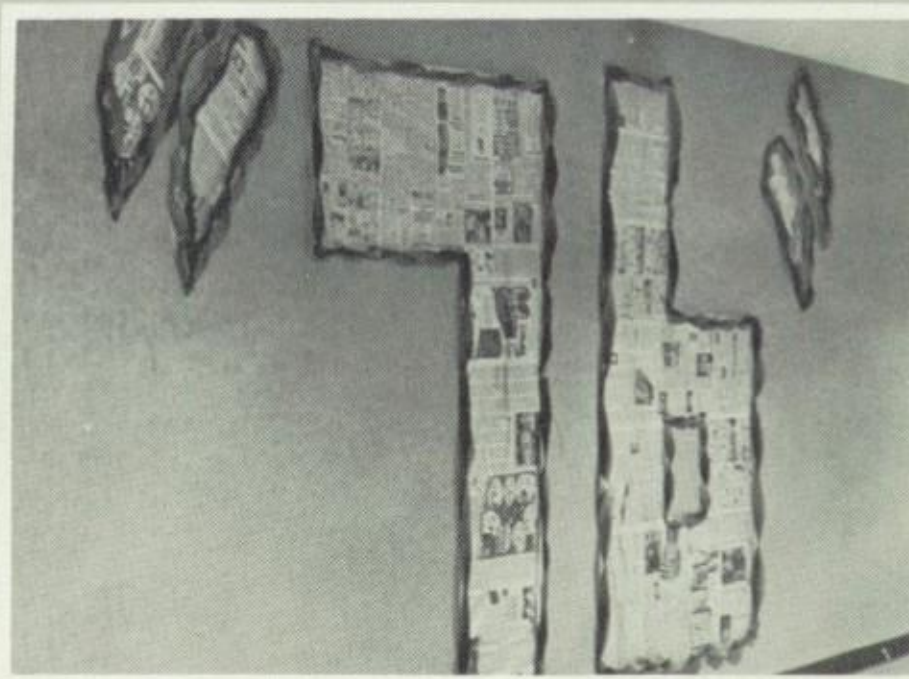

Someone to walk with, talk to and lean on. A friend to comfort you. A second self. Another individual reaching out to you and feeling your feelings. Somebody to care about; to share with. To treasure. To respect and be respected by. Someone to love. A friend. People who need people really are the luckiest people.

Are the luckiest people in the world!

1973 was a very good year

Homeward Bound

A bell rings. We're elated. Books close. Laughter echoes the bell. Halls become congested. Good-byes are said. Buses fill. Once again we're homeward bound.

Close to You...

Holding someone close to you. Knowing their needs. Feeling their feelings and feeling very special feelings about them. Sharing their secrets. Feeling their ups and downs. Having a special person to laugh with, to love. Someone who smiles at you a special way and only you know its meaning. Someone to know and care for. A special time shared by two and remembered. Always.

And hear it echo through the hills for peace throughout the land.

GRADUATION DAY

It's a time for joy, a time for tears, a time we'll treasure through the years.

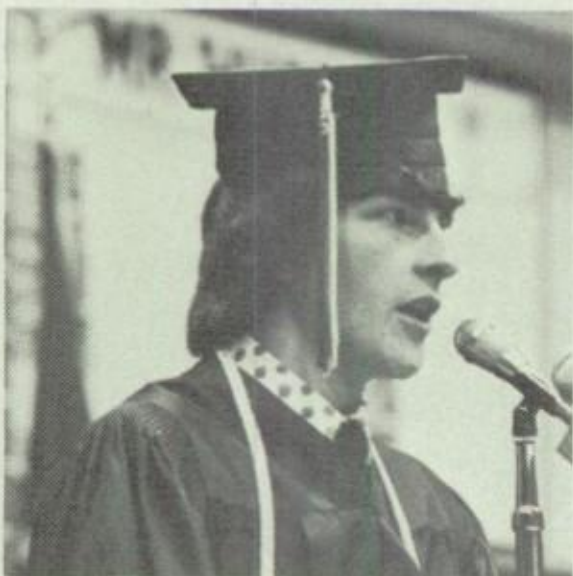

Tho we leave in sorrow
All the joys we've know
We can face tomorrow
Knowing we'll never walk alone
When the ivy walls are far behind no matter
Where our path may wind
We'll always remember

We'll Always Remember

Lynn Coon, Speaker

Kevin Clouser
Class President

THE CLASS OF 1973. Not extra special. No better or worse than any other class. Just Seniors! In ten years we will no longer be the fresh-faced, idealistic class that set out to change the world; but parents, businessmen, or farmers. Still just Seniors '73. A time for memories. Not just the trite, forget-me-not blues of graduation, but the deep-down, no words can express feelings of friends and favorite teachers and fun. A time for growing up and facing life. Seniors-a class not feigning familyhood. Each individual as different as black and white, all differ-in friends, lives, ideas and fun. Different people with occasional disagreements-not enemies-just different, but still Seniors. We were a body a whole together as one. In this there was no difference.

Days of Future Passed

SENIOR YEAR: A time for knowing all the hiding places when we were doing something we shouldn't, for sneaking bites of candy in class. For knowing what to say to which teacher, for being a professional brown nose--after all, Seniors have had twelve years of practice. Seniors could get by with anything--well practically anything. Maybe that's because we had been around longer and knew the tricks of the trade. Everyone knows the Seniors. Freshmen looked at us and thought they'd never be that old. We looked at them and thought, "I certainly don't feel that old."

Cropping pictures, rearranging layouts, and writing copy were the jobs of the Charger staff under the leadership of Lynn Harbison, Editor-in-chief. Our staff was somewhat unique with nine feminine females producing the yearbook. Somehow throughout the year we have managed to meet all of our deadlines by working fast and frantically. It was an experience none of us will soon forget.

This year the Future Farmers of America performed many activities. The Future Farmers were members of a judging team and they went to various judging contests all over the state, where they won many prizes. They also spent many hours working on the FFA corn and bean plots owned by the school. The FFA money making project was catching chickens for local farmers. Next year's FFA are looking forward to another big FFA year.

Members of the Spanish Club discuss a newly-made pinata.

This year's Spanish Club endeavored to learn more about Spanish lifestyle and customs through slide presentations from Miss Bowman and Miss Bauer. Many of the Spanish members also saw movies on Spanish life and Mexican crafts.

On the lighter side, the Spanish Club had a Christmas party, with games and a pinata. A swim party was also sponsored by all of the language clubs, and members of the Spanish Club made Spanish slide presentations entitled "Little Red Riding Hood," and "Cinderella."

The busy French Club's purpose was to create enthusiasm and learn more about France. The year started off with a dance after the Charger football victory over South Mont. At the monthly meetings, speakers from Purdue and Crawfordsville spoke. The members also saw French movies, and played French games. The French Christmas party included caroling at the Carmen Rest Home, French games and the French Yule Log. Plans were made to attend the state FESTIVAL FRANCAIS in West Lafayette. The climax of the year was when the French Club went to dinner at a French Restaurant. The club then said their 'au revoirs' and looked back on the year as a great one.

Becky Bryan, Denise Vail and Randie Schoen presented "Little Red Riding Hood" in French at the state French Festival.

North Montgomery band was on the move this year! The band's outside activities started early in September with the Southmont Football Show. This was only the first of many football shows for the busy Chargers. They continued their schedule with Ball State Band Day, Marching Contest, Indiana State University Homecoming, and concerts for the public. This is only a few of their many activities. The climax of the year was getting their new navy and orange trimmed uniforms which cost over $1,600. We are all very proud of our Charger Band, and hope next year is as successful.

This year's Varsity Club sold Charger shirts, penants, and booster buttons. They also gave a scholarship of $50 to a college-bound senior boy who had excelled athletically and acedemically, and also displayed outstanding leadership. Mental attitude awards were also given in each of the nine sports.

Social clubs and activities are a vital part of school life at North Montgomery High School. It is through these clubs and activities that we, the members of the student body, learn the very important social aspects of life, as well as the educational aspect through our teachers and classrooms. We wish to thank everyone who has devoted time and energy to carrying out these extra-curricular programs.

JUNIORS, ALMOST

Staying up late. Ordering Prom decorations. Spilling 20 cokes. Reordering Prom decorations. Freezing in the concession's stand to make a little money.

Smiling at customers you'd like to throw popcorn on. Arguing where does this crepe paper go? Missing the big game to pop 200 boxes of popcorn. Burning your fingers but smiling when it's over. Almost there--this is a JUNIOR!

"There's a New Day Dawning"

Carrying their entire locker with them because they can not master the combination locks, approaching their desk from the wrong side, asking an upperclassman which way to go and being sent to the imaginary elevator, searching in the school handbook for the right rule--this is a FRESHMAN!

HOMECOMING

This year during football season, there was a homecoming held. During the half-time of the varsity game the Queen was crowned. After the game there was a dance in the Commons area. There was a lot of preparation before the game, to make it a success. This year's will be remembered for a long time to come.

It is much regretted that a picture of the newly organized girls' track team could not be obtained. However, there is included here a picture of a race in which our team participated. The girls all worked very hard to make their season a good one. Even with such limited experience, they are doing well. With the new support of girls' athletics, one must feel confident that they will do even better in the future.

The duck under position shown here gives the bottom man an opportunity to escape from the top man.

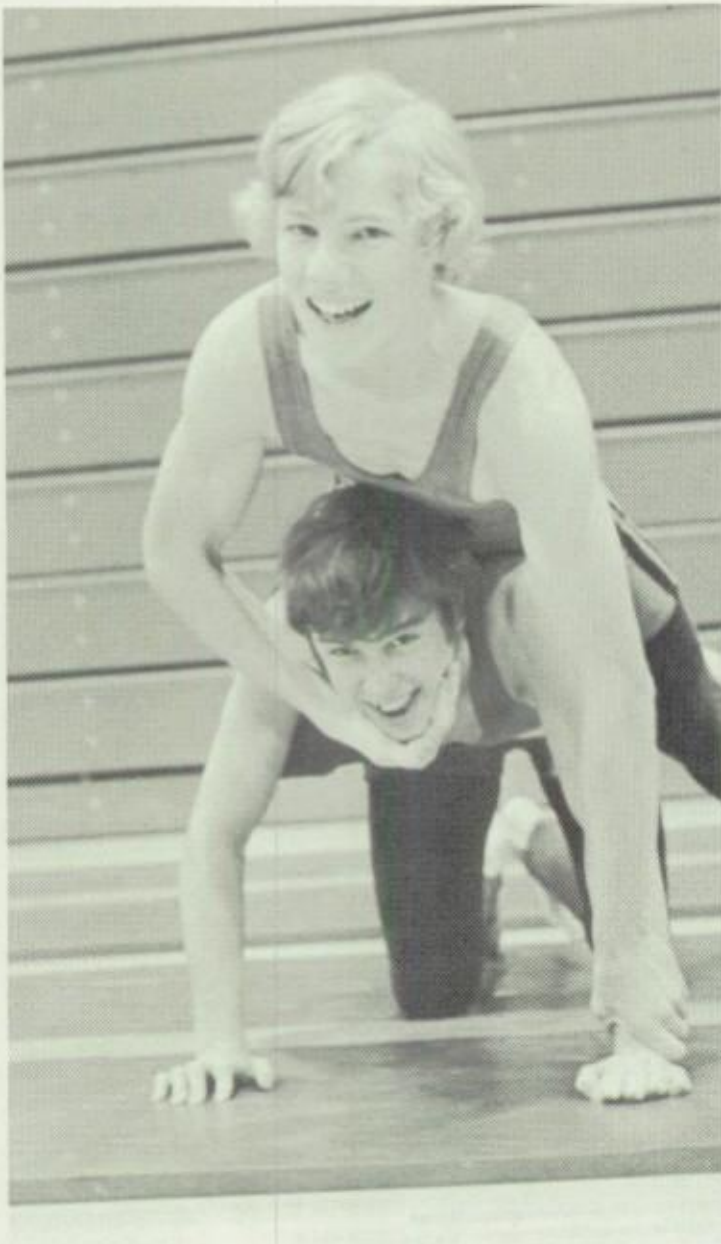

He may do so using his legs for leverage and swinging his body under the top man's chest.

The referee position is used to start the second and third rounds of a match.

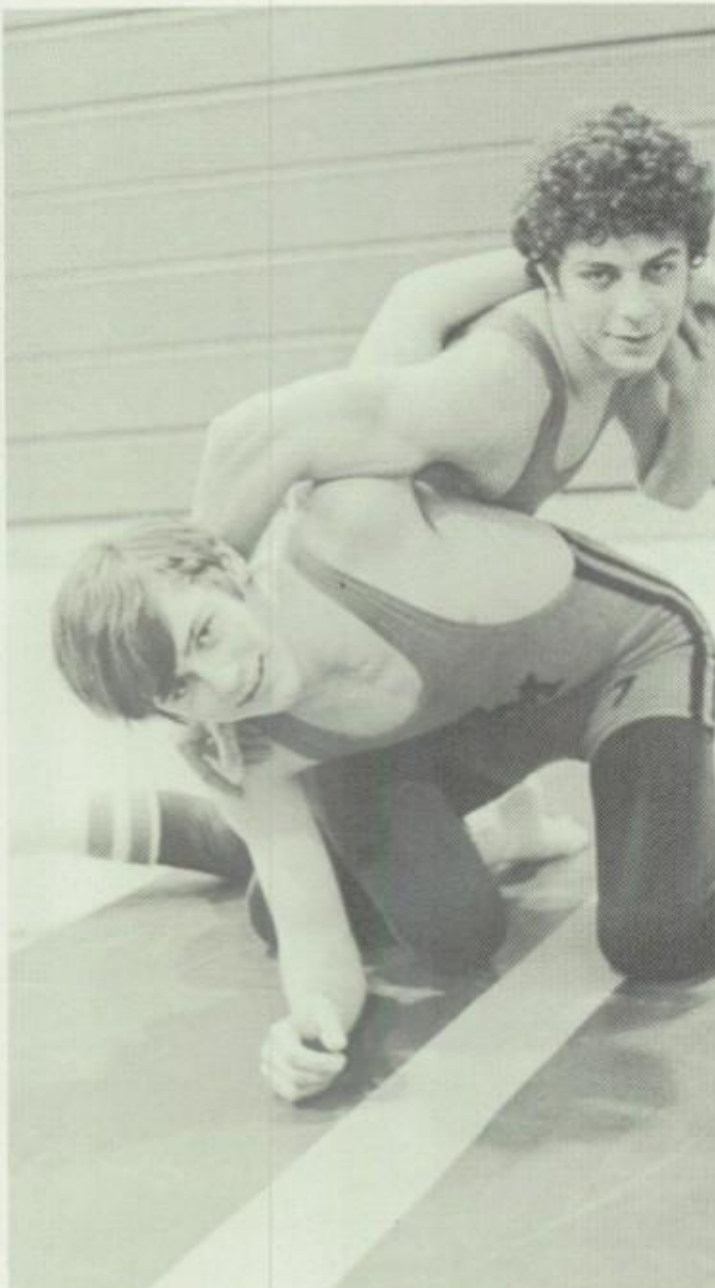

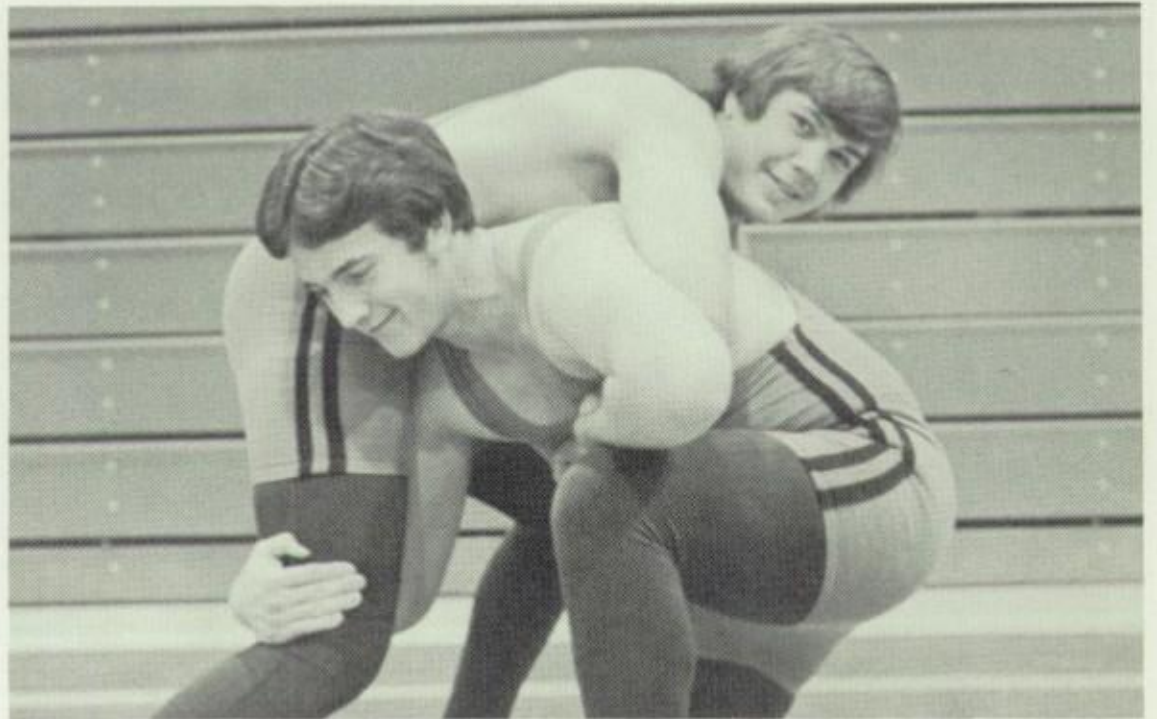

In the figure four, the top man simultaneously pushes the bottom man's lower back and pulls his arm to flip him.

The cradle is a pinning hold. The top man rolls back and pulls the bottom man down on both shoulders.

The fireman's carry is a takedown hold. Both men are standing when one grabs an arm and a leg of the other, quickly picking up and dropping him.

The guillotine hold is also a pinning hold. The top man falls back, pulling the bottom man over.

A Year Slips by

A year slips by, unnoticed by some, cherished by others. Every moment lingers in our minds. There is no stopping it, this time or this feeling. We can only remember. And if we can rekindle that feeling for a second, then we can keep it forever. And the memories will keep the moment alive; a time in our youth to live again.
